Guest speaker Brian Close CBE. Brian is still the youngest Englishman to play test cricket in a test career that lasted from 1949 to 1976. He played his county cricket for Yorkshire and Somerset. In his international career he played 22 times for England captaining the team 7 times, winning 6 and drawing 1. He was the man for the difficult occasion and was never far from controversy.

Auction will be conducted by former English professional snooker player Willie Thorne

We also hope to welcome other sporting personalities.
